

From what I have read in the newspapers and on the Internet, the FCC Commissioners are to vote today on media ownership rules that would considerably relax the opportunities for mergers restricting competition and variety in local markets. I am writing to oppose such relaxation of the ownership rules, because I believe that the public interest would be undermined by that action.